So ... what do I do now?

A WORK PLAN FOR THE DIRECTOR OF A RURAL &/OR SMALL PUBLIC LIBRARY

Prepared for the Southeast Kansas Library System

2016 Annual Meeting Westminster Woods, Kansas 30 March 2016

by

Donald B. Reynolds, Jr.

President, Friends of Tennessee Libraries
Retired Director, Nolichucky Regional Library, Tennessee
Founding Director and Past President, Association for Rural and Small Libraries
Former Assistant Administrator, Central Kansas Library System

Don.Reynolds2030@gmail.com

Fir	rst things first get a cup of tea/coffee (hot or iced) and some chocolate chip cookies
	Read Everything I Need to Know I Learned from a Children's Book. Anita Silvey, ed. Roaring Brook Press, 2009.
	Read Rules for Aging: A wry and witty guide to life by Roger Rosenblatt. Harcourt, 2000.
	Browse through Thriving on Chaos by Tom Peters. Knopf, 1987.
	And watch Kansas Libraries: You Belong Here and The Library Cheer for inspiration and to reenergize.
F	Peter Drucker has said that,  "Managers only get credit for two things: innovation and marketing."  This handout is designed to be used with the  Rural & Small Library Directors' Tool Kit web site http://rurallibrarydirectors.pbworks.com  A [SUBJECT] designation below indicates the section where the document can be found in the Tool Kit.
	Determine to be the DIRECTOR of the library: are you NICE?  □ Review the principles of Servant Leadership: http://www.greenleaf.org/whatissl/ and read: The Servant as Leader. Greenleaf Center, 1991.  □ The director & staff must believe in and support the principles described in the Library Bill of Rights, Freedom to Read, Freedom to View, and Statement of Professional Ethics.  □ Keep handy access to the Rural & Small Library Directors' Tool Kit  □ Purchase Introduction to Public Librarianship by Kathleen de la Pena McCook. 2 nd ed.  Neal-Schuman, 2011 for your work desk reference shelf.  □ Join the state library association.  □ Join the Association for Rural and Small Libraries http://arsl.info  □ Join United for Libraries http://www.ala.org/united/about  □ If a member of ALA, subscribe to American Libraries Direct.  □ Think about how to to report on library's community services: check PLA's Project  Outcome, designed to help public libraries measure and interpret their impact on the community. Read Project Outcome - Looking Back, Looking Forward and Moving Toward Outcomes.  □ Develop a process and information for an Annual Report - template in [FINANCES].
	Visit with library trustees and staff and Friends about the process: get them involved.  □ Purchase Trustees as Servants by Robert Greenleaf, 1991, for each board member.  □ Purchase The Complete Library Trustee Handbook by Sally Gardner Reed. ALA, 2010.  □ Create a Teen Advisory Board and Establish a teen seat on the Board of Trustees (if allowed by local law - if not, establish an advisory position).
	Help establish and encourage a Friends of the Library group.  □ Review Tool Kit for Building a Library Friends Group from the Friends of Tennessee Libraries (FOTL) http://tinyurl.com/BuildingLibraryFriendsGroupToolKit
	Establish Customer Focus groups - survey on what inhibits service; how to improve service.  □ Change (extend) hours for more public accessibility.  □ Read The Community-Led Libraries Toolkit [MARKETING & PUBLIC RELATIONS].  □ Read Library Makeovers Draw Seniors: Public places aim to become inviting senior spaces, offering Wii as well as books: http://www.aarp.org/personal-growth/life-long-learning/info-05-2011/library-makeovers-draw-seniors.html
	Visit with city/county manager and Chamber of Commerce director about life in the community:  What's happening in the community?
	Review the Community Stakeholders list in Understanding the Community [SERVING THE COMMUNITY] - choose 3 to 6 Stakeholders to visit first.  Read Value &amp; Vision by Joey Rodger.  Visit leaders/groups you selected, particularly homeschoolers.

Librarian as Community Leader - 2 of 4 -

	DO NOT ask what the library could do for them or attempt to tell them what the library can do – this is a fact-finding conversation about what they are doing .
	Listen to find out:  What are they doing?
	What kind of information do they need?  Re-examine your list then Let Your Imagination Wander [SERVICES &amp; PROGRAMS] .  Identify what library support resources would be helpful for those leaders/groups.  Prioritize the items on your list: do the top 3 in the next six months.  Revisit those folks whose priorities you chose and let them know what's now available.
Visit v	vith the local newspaper editor : talk about his perception of life in the community.  Discuss possibilities of a library column, library supplement.  Advertise in community supplements.
	Begin to attend city/county and economic development committee meetings regularly.  Library should join the Chamber of Commerce Then attend meetings.  Gather information about community development projects.  Get on the mailing list for local government notices, minutes, etc.  Review the 25 Ways Your Library Can Support Small Business [SERVICES & PROGRAMS]  Establish a Job Seekers Information Center and/or a Business Information Center at the library, in the chamber of commerce office and/or the cooperative extension office.
	op a working relationship with the County Extension agents.  Distribute Extension publications in the library.
	large book store and browse through its organization carefully.  Find another library director or retailer to visit: complete the Checklist for Image audit [FACILITIES] , especially checking signage and overcrowded shelves.  Take steps to make the needed changes and improve signage – external and internal.  Take a dated inventory of your collection weed ruthlessly as you go.  Use The CREW Method [COLLECTION MANAGEMENT] .
	Read about the previous Library Journal's Best Small Library winners. 2012 Award: http://lj.libraryjournal.com/2012/01/managing-libraries/best-small-library-in-america-2012-the-independence-public-library-ks/#finalists 2016 Award: http://lj.libraryjournal.com/2016/01/awards/culture-convener-best-small-library-in-america-2016/#_ Best small library past awards: http://lj.libraryjournal.com/awards/past-winners/#small Read ICMA's Strategies for Public Libraries [STRATEGIC PLANNING]. Read Aspen - Rising to the Challenge 2014 Report [STRATEGIC PLANNING]. Read Aspen - Action Guide for Re-envisioning (Jan 2016) [STRATEGIC PLANNING]. Read Re-Envisioning Public Libraries Create a Vision Statement (how library wishes to be perceived by the public — what it wants to become). Write a Mission Statement (defines the purpose, library's reason for being in business)
	Read Marketing Plan.  Read Marketing the Small Library (Kansas) [MARKETING & PUBLIC RELATIONS].  Develop a Customer Service Statement.  Design an identifying logo and tagline (a branding statement that captures in a few words the essence of your library service): type "rural library logos" or "public library logos" into Google Images search box.  Have coordinating stationary and business cards printed.  Develop "elevator talk(s)" (less than a minute) about happenings/services at the library.  "If you can't explain it simply, you don't understand it well enough." - Albert Einstein Make your restrooms sparkle. "I am serious that this is an idea to improve a dealer's (or any retail business's) profitability." - John Wyckoff  Offer library cards to non-residents who work in the community.  Remember Will Rogers' admonition: "Get someone else to blow your horn and the sound will carry twice as far."
	e a brochure and bookmark about library services, location, hours, and staff.  Provide service brochure for new customers - provide library info for welcome wagon.  Check "library clip art" in Google Images search box.  Determine other spots in the community where brochure could be left for pick-up.

Librarian as Community Leader - 3 of 4-

Hire a technology coordinator - preferably a sixth grader.   Install an automated system for holdings search, reserves by computer.   Develop a web page, preferably connected with local government. Check: Building the Digital Branch: Guidelines to Transform Your Website by David Lee King, Library Technology Reports. Developing a Library Web Site docx   Review this TechSoup webinar: Library Websites on a Budget.   Check with local schools about computer use and training.   Include the Kansas Digital Book eLending, Kansas Online Databases, Talking Books, C-SPAN's BOOK-TV, National Institutes for Health as links on your web site.   Go wireless inside the library building.   Purchase iPads, ebook readers, and video players (PlayAways) for lending,   Establish Facebook and Twitter pages, but only if you have a steady monitor.   Create a video about the library for You'Tube: samples of videos.   Review Recommended Websites for Research and Reference Resource Center (Tennessee)   [COLLECTION MANAGEMENT].   Prepare pathfinders or information kits on hot topics: local community projects, genealogy, local history, local agency resources, business resources.   Check out the over 430,000 guides in the LibGuides Community.   Check the resources in the Internet Public Library (not being updated).   Review resources available through the Digital Public Library of America.   Sponsor a "Love My Library" or "Our Library is - " promotion and ask customers (or just kids) to write down what they love about the library on a heart or posterboard. Post the hearts everywhere.   Allow food and drink (make sure you use lids for the drinks).   Set up coffee, tea brewing (even iced) area.   Make sure you add more trash cans around the library when you allow food and drink. Install vending machines.   All staff should wear name tags - using a lanyard or magnetic back.   Allow videos to be returned in book drop. Involve customers in selection.   Purchase The Book Page for public distribution.   Check the National Film Registry as video buy	u	future, they are the now."  Read E-book Business Models for Public Libraries (ALA) [FINANCES]
Prepare pathfinders or information kits on hot topics: local community projects, genealogy, local history, local agency resources, business resources.   Check out the over 430,000 guides in the LibGuides Community.   Check the resources in the Internet Public Library (not being updated).   Review resources available through the Digital Public Library of America.   Sponsor a "Love My Library" or "Our Library is - " promotion and ask customers (or just kids) to write down what they love about the library on a heart or posterboard. Post the hearts everywhere.   Allow food and drink (make sure you use lids for the drinks).   Set up coffee, tea brewing (even iced) area.   Make sure you add more trash cans around the library when you allow food and drink. Install vending machines.   All staff should wear name tags - using a lanyard or magnetic back.   Allow videos to be returned in book drop.   Involve customers in selection.   Purchase The Book Page for public distribution.   Check the National Film Registry as video buy list. http://www.loc.gov/programs/national-film-preservation-board/film-registry/complete-national-film-registry-listing/.   Install a drive-up window to return and check-out materials.   And always keep in mind Maya Angelou's words: "I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel."    Find and read each of the following:   "Click! The Feminization of the Public Library; Policies and Attitudes Make Men the Great Unserved" by Carol Hole. American Libraries. December 1990. pp.1076-1079.   "Serving Men Better" by Marylaine Block. Library Journal. 1 March 2001. p.60.   >>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>		<ul> <li>□ Install an automated system for holdings search, reserves by computer.</li> <li>□ Develop a web page, preferably connected with local government. Check: Building the Digital Branch: Guidelines to Transform Your Website by David Lee King, Library Technology Reports. Developing a Library Web Site.docx</li> <li>□ Review this TechSoup webinar: Library Websites on a Budget.</li> <li>□ Check with local schools about computer use and training.</li> <li>□ Include the Kansas Digital Book eLending, Kansas Online Databases, Talking Books, C-SPAN's BOOK-TV, National Institutes for Health as links on your web site.</li> <li>□ Go wireless inside the library building.</li> <li>□ Purchase iPads, ebook readers, and video players (PlayAways) for lending.</li> <li>□ Establish Facebook and Twitter pages, but only if you have a steady monitor.</li> </ul> history, local agency resources, business resources.  Check out the over 430,000 guides in the LibGuides Community.  Check the resources in the Internet Public Library (not being updated).  Review resources available through the Digital Public Library of America.  Sponsor a "Love My Library" or "Our Library is - " promotion and ask customers (or just kids) to write down what they love about the library on a heart or posterboard. Post the hearts everywhere.  Allow food and drink (make sure you use lids for the drinks).  Set up coffee, tea brewing (even iced) area.  Make sure you add more trash cans around the library when you allow food and drink.  Install vending machines.  All staff should wear name tags - using a lanyard or magnetic back.  Allow videos to be returned in book drop.  Involve customers in selection.  Purchase The Book Page for public distribution.  Check the National Film Registry as video buy list. http://www.loc.gov/programs/national-film-preservation-board/film-registry/complete-national-film-registry-listing/  Install a drive-up window to return and check-out materials.  And always keep in mind Maya Angelou's words: "Tve learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel."  Find and read each of the following:  "Click! The Feminization of the Public Library; Policies and Attitudes Make Men the Great Unserved" by Carol Hole. American Libraries. December 1990. pp.1076-1079.  "Serving Men Better" by Marylaine Block. Library Journal. 1 March 2001. p.60.  Serving Men Better" by Marylaine Block. Library Journal. 1 March 2001. p.60.  David D. Seitz and Communicate! A Librarian's Guide to Interpersonal Relations. Anne J. Mathews, ALA, 1983.  Customer Service and Innovation in Libraries by Glenn Miller. Highsmith, 1996.
write down what they love about the library on a heart or posterboard. Post the hearts everywhere.  Allow food and drink (make sure you use lids for the drinks).  Set up coffee, tea brewing (even iced) area.  Make sure you add more trash cans around the library when you allow food and drink.  Install vending machines.  All staff should wear name tags - using a lanyard or magnetic back.  Allow videos to be returned in book drop.  Involve customers in selection.  Purchase The Book Page for public distribution.  Check the National Film Registry as video buy list. http://www.loc.gov/programs/national-film-preservation-board/film-registry/complete-national-film-registry-listing/  Install a drive-up window to return and check-out materials.  And always keep in mind Maya Angelou's words: "I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel."  Find and read each of the following:  "Click! The Feminization of the Public Library; Policies and Attitudes Make Men the Great Unserved" by Carol Hole. American Libraries. December 1990. pp.1076-1079.  "Serving Men Better" by Marylaine Block. Library Journal. 1 March 2001. p.60.  Serving Men Better" by Marylaine Block. Library Journal. 1 March 2001. p.60.  Serving Men Better" by Marylaine Block. Library Journal. 1 March 2001. p.60.  Serving Men Better" by Marylaine Block. Library Journal. 1 March 2001. p.60.  Serving Men Better" by Marylaine Block. Librarian's Guide to Interpersonal Relations. Anne J. Mathews, ALA, 1983.  Customer Service and Innovation in Libraries by Glenn Miller. Highsmith, 1996.		history, local agency resources, business resources.  Check out the over 430,000 guides in the LibGuides Community .  Check the resources in the Internet Public Library (not being updated).
<ul> <li>"Click! The Feminization of the Public Library; Policies and Attitudes Make Men the Great Unserved" by Carol Hole. American Libraries. December 1990. pp.1076-1079.</li> <li>"Serving Men Better" by Marylaine Block. Library Journal. 1 March 2001. p.60.</li> <li>&gt;</li></ul>		write down what they love about the library on a heart or posterboard. Post the hearts everywhere.  Allow food and drink (make sure you use lids for the drinks).  Set up coffee, tea brewing (even iced) area.  Make sure you add more trash cans around the library when you allow food and drink.  Install vending machines.  All staff should wear name tags - using a lanyard or magnetic back.  Allow videos to be returned in book drop.  Involve customers in selection.  Purchase The Book Page for public distribution.  Check the National Film Registry as video buy list. http://www.loc.gov/programs/national-film-preservation-board/film-registry/complete-national-film-registry-listing/  Install a drive-up window to return and check-out materials.  And always keep in mind Maya Angelou's words: "I've learned that people will forget what you
<ul> <li>Unserved" by Carol Hole. American Libraries. December 1990. pp.1076-1079.</li> <li>□ "Serving Men Better" by Marylaine Block. Library Journal. 1 March 2001. p.60.</li> <li>□ → → → → → Interlibrary loan and read through A Handbook of Retail Promotion Ideas by David D. Seitz and Communicate! A Librarian's Guide to Interpersonal Relations. Anne J. Mathews, ALA, 1983.</li> <li>□ Customer Service and Innovation in Libraries by Glenn Miller. Highsmith, 1996.</li> </ul>	Fin	d and read each of the following:
		Unserved" by Carol Hole. American Libraries . December 1990. pp.1076-1079.  "Serving Men Better" by Marylaine Block. Library Journal . 1 March 2001. p.60.  December 1990. pp.1076-1079.  "Serving Men Better" by Marylaine Block. Library Journal . 1 March 2001. p.60.  December 1990. pp.1076-1079.
- wing we buy. The belefice of briopping by I aco officerinit. Simon & seriuster, 2000.

Be a hen, not a goose

Cibrarian as Community Leader - 4 of 4 -